James Jackson and I are hosting a fundraising shoot at his Philadelphia Studio, Studio 5 South, on July 27th, 2007 to raise money for Philip Warner of Lithium Picnic's legal fund. He is presently in litigation with Suicide Girls in the state of Oregon. I've made mention of this before, but if you're local to Philly and interested in shooting, modeling, contributing talent, styling, fashion, assistance, equipment, food, catering, or anything you can think of to help, EVERY contribution is appreciated!

Check the link below for more information on the shoot, including a list of attendees, details, dates, location, and information on WHY we are hosting this get-together!
DAMN THE MAN, SAVE LITHIUM PICNIC

Photographers can contact James to get involved, Models can contact me, and anyone else interested in getting involved can contact either of us.
